

Boating in Hudson

There is nothing like getting out on the water and letting the world slow down. Come to Hudson and paddle, row, or sail the day away.

RENT-A-FLOAT

Want to try out a paddleboard, kayak, or canoe? Or even a pontoon? Check out what floats your boat! A growing number of locations are offering various watercraft rentals including:

- Beanie's Marina
- Glen Hills County Park
- Homestead Parklands on Perch Lake
- Little Falls Lake at Willow River State Park

BRING YOUR OWN BOAT

Beanie's Marina

This public ramp is located just across the St. Croix River in Lakeland, MN. Bring your own boat or rent one from Beanie's Marina. They also offer water toys and towables for rent or purchase, bait for fishing, snacks for the family, and other boating supplies you may need.

Corky's Pier

This public ramp is located on Lake Mallalieu just south of the Mallalieu Bridge on Second Street, on the east shoreline at Corky's Pier. The Lake does not connect to the St. Croix River. There is limited parking in this location.

Ferry Landing

This ramp is located along the St. Croix River in the Village of North Hudson at Galahad Rd. North & Sommers St. North. The ramp is also located near a park. No alcohol or fires are allowed in the park. For events, the pavilion can be reserved at NorthHudsonWI.gov.

Lakefront Park

Discover Hudson's 670-foot Boardwalk, perfect for boaters seeking to explore the area's shops and restaurants. Docking your boat is free, and there's a platform available for fishing. Plus, the dock is wheelchair accessible.

For those looking to launch their boats, Lakefront Park provides a public boat ramp with associated fees. Detailed information about fees and passes can be found at HudsonWI.gov. Situated in downtown Hudson, this ramp offers convenient access to local shops and restaurants. You can find it on First Street between Buckeye and Vine Streets, Hudson, WI 54016.
