

Fall Into Hudson

Autumn is the perfect time to enjoy everything the Hudson area has to offer—from vibrant colors and seasonal flavors to festive events. Here are five great ways to make the most of the season.

1

UNIQUE FALL TOURS

Enjoy a scenic river cruise with St. Croix River Cruises, savor local cuisine on a Hudson Food Walk tour, or cuddle up with some furry alpaca friends at Eagle Eye Farm. Continue the fall fun with a behind-the-scenes tour at Tattersall Distilling, where award-winning cocktails are crafted to perfection.

2

BEAUTIFUL PARKS & SCENIC WALKS

Take a stroll and soak in the stunning fall colors. Explore Hudson's Tree Treks, Lakefront Heritage Project, or the History Walking Tour for a scenic and educational experience. Enjoy picturesque views from Birkmose and Lakefront parks, or take a hike at Willow River State Park, famous for its outstanding waterfall.

3

SHOP LOCAL & WARM UP WITH COMFORT FOOD

Come for our award-winning restaurants and outdoor patios! Many of our restaurants offer outdoor seating. Like true Wisconsinites, they are keeping them open until it's too cold. For us, fall is never too cold. Continue your fall fun at a variety of local shops unique to Hudson.

4

DRIVE THE TRAIL

Travel the Yellowstone Trail in Hudson and St. Croix County. The Yellowstone Trail was the first transcontinental road that ran from Plymouth Rock to Puget Sound in the era before numbered roads and maps.

5

FESTIVE FALL EVENTS

Embrace autumn at one of the numerous seasonal celebrations in the Hudson area. Experience 80 juried artists, live music, and fall flavors at the Spirit of the St. Croix Art Festival. Hayrides, pumpkin decorating, and more await you at the Hilltop Pumpkin Party & Rotary Halloween Costume Contest. White Pine Berry Farm offers a variety of fall family days against a backdrop of u-pick pumpkins, a corn maze, and friendly farm animals.
